Many young people strive to be independent. That means you are able to take care of yourself, and you don't have to rely on anyone else. However, to live independently, you need a number of life skills in order not to depend on your parents and older brothers or sisters. One of the most important skills is time management which can help you build your confidence and self-esteem. With good time management skills, you can perform your daily tasks, including your responsibilities at school and at home with pleasing results. Moreover, you will not feel stressed when exam dates are approaching. These skills can also help you act more independently and responsibly, get better grades at school and have more time for your family and friends.

Developing time-management skills is not as challenging as you may think. Firstly, make a plan for things you need to do, including appointments and deadlines. Using a diary or apps on mobile devices will remind you of what you need to accomplish and when you need to accomplish it. Secondly, prioritize your activities. You need to decide which tasks are the most urgent and important and then, concentrate on these first. This way, you may not be at a loss to deal with too much work at the same time. Thirdly, develop routines because routines, when established, take less time for you to do your tasks.

Time management skills are not hard to develop; once you master them, you will find out that they are great keys to success and you can become independent.

Question 24. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. Life skills to be independent.
- B. Good time-management skills give the youth more confidence and self-esteem
- C. Steps to develop mastering time-management skills and their benefits
- D. Time management skills are easy to develop

Question 25. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as benefits of good time-management?

- A. Be more confident and self-esteemed.
- B. Feel more stressed when exam dates are coming.
- C. Get better grades at school.
- D. Spend more time for yourselves and your family.

Question 26. How can you prioritize your activities?

- A. Make schedule for things you need to do.
- B. Try to establish routines.
- C. Concentrate on the most urgent and important tasks first.
- D. Do all work at the same time

Question 27. What does the word challenging in paragraph 2 mean?

- A. easy B. enjoyable C. changeable D. hard
